A SUPREME COURT

Impressive Opening Ceremonies Under American Auspices at Santiago de Cuba.

SEÑOR ECHEVERRIA SUPREME JUSTICE

He Formally Recognized the United States as the Supreme Power and Will Render Justice to All.

The First Session of the First Fully Cuban Court Was Opened—Among Cubans the Event is Considered a Matter of General Congratulation.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Dec. 3.—The opening of the recently organized supreme court. Friday morning was an impressive ceremony. Chief Justice Echeverria presided over the session prior to the opening, called at the palace, where they were received by Gen. Leonard Wood, after which, with Gen. Wood and his aides, Mr. Robert Porter and others, they were driven to the supreme court chamber. Here the judges donned their robes of office, long silk gowns trimmed with white lace, and, accompanied by the attorneys practicing in the court, who were similarly dressed, formed in procession and passed into the courtroom, the chief justice escorting Gen. Wood.

The procession having divided into semi-circles, Gen. Wood in a few tactful and forceful words, opened the proceedings, delivering the court, in the name of the United States government, to the chief justice and his associates and demanding from the public implicit obedience to the court's decisions and decrees. His pronouncements were translated into Spanish by Capt. Mendoza.

Chief Justice Echeverria, replying, accepted the judicial offices in the name of justice, formally recognizing the United States as the supreme power, and declaring that the bench would render justice to rich and poor alike.

The proceedings terminated with handshaking, after which Gen. Wood's party was escorted to the entrance by the entire legal body. The first session of the first postrevolutionary court was over. Among Cubans the event is a matter for general congratulation. The local newspapers consider it the dawn of a new era and express the hope that the judges, who are men of legal acumen and profound research, may be able to show the world that the Cuban population has within itself the elements of good government. The same papers are exceedingly complimentary in their allusion to Gen. Wood, declaring it "quite impossible that any other American could have secured a better grasp of the entire situation."

Col. Valente, who has been appointed chief of the gendarmerie, made a record during the insurrection. He was the first to order his men to lay down their arms after the American occupation, and he showed his willingness in every way to co-operate with the United States authorities. He is exceedingly popular among everyone, very energetic, and though a comparatively young man, widely experienced. His appointment is much applauded.

On Monday 150 men will begin to build the road to Hoglin. The distance, making allowances for necessary deviation, is 75 miles. Gen. Wood is determined to facilitate the means of intercommunication for the towns in this end of the island, and on the same day a railroad will begin to transmission. In this case a distance of 40 miles must be covered. When the funds will allow, a road will be started to Manzanillo. These highways, once completed, will be of inestimable value for military and commercial purposes.

Cap. Glass to Be Relieved of His Command.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Capt. Glass, one of Dewey's commandants in the battle of Manila bay, is to be relieved from the command of the Charleston and brought home from Manila on waiting orders at his own request. He will be succeeded in command of the Charleston by Capt. Whiting, now at Manila in command of the Monadnock. The commander of the latter has not yet been selected.

Alleged Gang of Georgians Arrested.

New York, Dec. 3.—George S. Martin, Charles S. Grill and W. S. Cutler, who are said to be members of the Worthington gang, one of the most notorious gangs of real estate swindlers in the country, were Friday arrested and locked up in the Tombs on charges of swindling. The police have been after them for more than a year. Each of the men has a long list of aliases, and is known by one name or another in nearly every state in the union.

President Estrada Prendes His Visit.

WILMINGTON, Dec. 3.—President Iglesias of Costa Rica, who had it impossible to carry on his original purpose to sail by one of the French liners Saturday, and has determined to remain in this country another week, spending most of the time after Sunday in New York. He gave most of Friday to returning calls.

PHILIPPINE INSURGENTS.

Interesting Information Bearing on Their Condition—They Are More Well Educated Men Among Them.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—A private letter received from Manila, dated October 22, gives some interesting information bearing on the condition of the Filipinos. At that time the insurgents had a line of troops outside the American lines and would not permit the latter to pass through. They had seven steam launches, and a rumor prevailed that they thought of trying to capture an American man-of-war. It was reported that Adm. Dewey took away all their launches just a few days before the letter was written. The writer adds:

"The insurgents are not a bad people; they have been oppressed for ages. We have treated them harshly and shot many, death on mere suspicion. There are many well educated and intelligent men among them, and as I love liberty I feel a deep sympathy for them."

Since the city has been cleaned up the bad smells have disappeared and the health of the troops has improved. CALLED UPON THE PRESIDENT.

Gen. Garcia in Washington and Visits the White House—The Interview Lasted an Hour and a Half.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Gen. Garcia arrived in the city Friday afternoon, and with the other members of the Cuban commission, called upon the president.

Gen. Gonzales de Quesada, who presented Gen. Garcia to the president and acted as interpreter in the conference that followed, said Friday evening that, as the conference was of a private nature, it manifestly would be improper to make public any of its details. He was satisfied, he said, that the interview was entirely satisfactory to both the members of the Cuban commission and the president.

Friday evening Maj. Gen. Miles, commander of the army, called upon Gen. Garcia at his hotel. The call was unofficial. The two soldiers spent a pleasant half hour together.

THE STANDING ARMY.

Gen. Miles Has Prepared the Draft of a Bill Providing for an Increase to One Hundred Thousand Men.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Gen. Miles, preparing the army, has prepared the draft of a bill providing for a regular standing army of 100,000 men. The bill, it is said, will provide for an organization of 12 companies to the regiment, with an arrangement for a third Lieutenant for each company in case of need for that officer. It will contain provision for a staff corps largely in accordance with the recommendations of the heads of the various bureaus as recommended by them in their annual reports. Chairman Hall of the house committee on military affairs, intends to present the measure in congress at the first opportunity.

SHOT HIS SWEETHEART.

They Had a Quarrel and He Fired Two Shots, the Second Taking Eff—The Shooter is a Foreigned Soldier.

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Dec. 3.—Wm. Foster shot and probably fatally wounded Miss Myrtle Gormand Friday evening. He had a quarrel and Foster becoming enraged, drew a revolver and fired two shots, the second taking effect in the girl's abdomen. He escaped and the police are looking for him. Foster is a private of Company C, 8th Pennsylvania regiment, and is home on a furlough. Both he and his victim ride at Green Castle and are here visiting friends Friday.

Lone Wife's Suicide.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Dec. 3.—Mrs. Nooney Lindsay, wife of M. M. Lindsay, of this city, suicated at the home of her father, Roscoe Bartlett, near Aligro, Todd county, Friday, by swallowing an overdose of morphine. Domestic trouble is supposed to have caused the act, as her husband had left her and is suing for divorce, claiming that she has violated her marriage vows.

Consular's Office at Return.

GENERAL GOVERNMENTAL INSPECTION

Herefore an Inspection Was Made by Germans Every Time the American Goods Changed Hands.

A Few Was Charged—Even Then and the Loss of the Most Persons an Exporters Was Very Large.—The Present System to Be Most Feudal.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The state department, through Ambassador White at Berlin, for some time past has been in correspondence with the German government in an effort to secure an abatement of the many vexations connected with the importation of American meat products into Germany. At present these products are required to pass under the closest examination, in some cases a dozen times before reaching the consumer, notwithstanding the fact that the goods have been thoroughly tested, as certified by the seal of the American government before leaving the United States. The German inspections begin at the port of entry and are renewed every time the goods change hands. As this involves the breaking open of original packages, even when the latter
